Sharon is a Kariyarra, Yindjibarndi woman. She has been painting since the Bujee Nhoorr-Pu art group were painting at Cossack.

She paints the dreamtime stories about the land and the country. She focuses on Millstream and the waterholes along the Fortescue River. The Barrimirndi story, the story of how the Rainbow Serpent created the Fortescue River is an important story for the Yindjibarndi people and it often appears in Sharon's artworks.

Her work also features the Yindjibarndi brand symbol and her strong ochre colours reflect those colours used in body painting for ceremony.
