Biography

Anna Peel is a Yulparitja artist who was born in Bidyadanga community. She currently lives in Broome and enjoys painting at Short St Bungalow and at home.

Anna paints the beautiful flowers on her mother's country and says,

"This is my grandmother's and mother's country called Pinkalarta. These are the patterns and colours of bush flowers blooming in the desert.

When the jila [waterholes] are filled during the wet season, bush mayi [food], plants and flowers of the desert blooms to beautiful colours.

These waterholes are my dear grandmother's and mother's who is no longer with me now."
